Yale and Harvard athletes are said to have walked all over the amateurism rules, but Lo, the poor Indian!

Several days of ideal "sugar weather" last week caused "home made sugar" to make its appearance on the local market.

Governor Sulzer of New York says he is going to go slow but sure. Imagine such a statement from the Sage of Oyster Bay!

Three great events crowded into the short month of February; Ground Hog Day, St. Valentine Day and George Washington's Birthday.

The Michigan man is said to be recovering from the operation where he acquired the brains of a dog. Would you call that operation a howling success?

February is said to be the shortest month in the year, but if it is any shorter for us than December and January were the sheriff will get us if we don't watch out.

The effects of the new parcels post system is being seen around the Lancaster postoffice, the rural carriers resemble old Santa Claus when they start on their morning trips.

The early bird gets the worm, and the candidate who shows the people he is in earnest, tells them what he is for and what he is against, will be the long pole that knocks the pessimism.

Butter is growing to be a scarce article in this community, even the country people who are accustomed to supply the town, are buying butter. The severe weather is the cause.

Thus far this winter there has been no weather suitable to the gathering of natural ice, but what matter, with the completion of the new ice plant the product may be secured of better quality and cheaper than that stored during the wintry weather.

The auto bug is buzzing, and with the advent of Spring quite a number of new automobiles will be seen in Lancaster. Our citizens have never had any trouble in keeping in front of the spot light and they will be second to no town in the number of performers behind the headlight.

The features of inauguration week are looming big, and seeming Wilson and Marshall, will be second in importance to the suffragettes, who will parade in militant array on historic Pennsylvania avenue, the day before the inauguration. Look for Bro. William Walton and you will find him with an extra piece of rubber neck when the mice are turned loose.

J. R. MOUNT.

To The Democratic Voters Of Garrard County.

Believing in a republican form of government in which the humblest and the poorest citizen may equally contend with the rich and favored for political office, and believing in the democratic doctrine of rotation in office and knowing that a generous public often rewards an efficient tried and true democratic worker with preferment, I announced myself as a candidate to represent Garrard County in the Kentucky Legislature, subject to a democratic primary to be held in August (1913.) Believing that when a man asks of the people the office of representative, or any other office, that the people have the right to a free and candid expression of his views upon public questions that directly affect them, and believing that Governor Beckham was robbed of the office of United States Senator by four political renegades, and that he has always been true to his convictions and the interest of the great common people of our State, and that he is admirably qualified for this office, I will say to the voters of this county that I prefer him to any man in Kentucky for this office.

He was called to the Governor's chair when only 31 years old, when the state was in a chaotic condition the Legislative and Court of Appeals were run out of the city of Frankfort by armed soldiers when the state was nearly two million dollars in debt, and disorder and demoralization upon all sides, and yet at this inexperienced age, he brought peace and tranquility out of chaos, put the states finances upon a sound and economical basis, enlarged the appropriations to the eleemosynary institutions of the state, greatly augmented the Common School fund, regenerated the prison system and put them upon a paying and self sustaining basis, built your magnificent state Capitol building costing $2,000,000 without any suspicion or charge of graft, left the state treasury with over $1,000,000 in it, and all this was done by his splendid management and executive ability, without raising your tax rate; put the County Unit plank in the democratic platform, and made it possible to be put upon your statute books, did not repine or become disgruntled in defeat, but put his shoulder to the wheel and helped to roll up the democratic majority and victory in 1911, and had he been your representative in Congress when the Kenyon bill was voted upon, he would not have deserted his post for the doubtful shadow of the saloon keeper's wing, nor hidden behind the flimsy and puerile pretext of unconstitutionality.

We sadly need such a man in the Senate to help carry out the pledges to the people in the National Democratic platform and sustain President-elect Wilson in his effort to redeem these pledges.

I cast my first vote for him in 1898 and have always been his zealous supporter, I have been for him up hill and down dale, and have never yet failed to find him honest, courageous, progressive and always working for the best interest of his party and "the common people." Very recently upon the streets of Lancaster he with James and others of the Kentucky delegation at the Baltimore Convention with that matchless and grand statesman, William Jennings Bryan, were denounced and vilified as wreckers and demagogues of the democratic party, and it was advocated to unceremoniously kick them out of the Baltimore convention, and yet by following the leadership of Bryan, the nomination of that christian statesman, Woodrow Wilson, for the presidency was made possible, and this was accomplished only by these men over ruling the power and control of the trusts and big interests that were dominating that convention, and by their actions made the election of Woodrow Wilson a certainty.

My observation has taught me that certain sporadic and spasmodic changes of mind and sentiment in order to be on the popular side of men or measures are like death bed regenerations, of unstable quality and doubtful and suspicious character, one is the art of the trickster and demagogue in politics, the other of the dissembler and hypocrite in religion. In my conception of right and wrong there is no distinction between personal and political integrity; a man who would violate a sacred political agreement, can scarcely be trusted, and I submit to you is likely to betray a political promise or dishonor a business obligation. If you do not want the treachery, such as was exemplified by the four political crooks that knifed Governor Beckham four years ago, to be repeated, put none but true and tried Beckham men on guard.

I have been voting the Democratic ticket for 40 years without faltering and should you commission me to vote for another than Gov. Beckham I will do so for I believe it the paramount duty of a representative to respect the will of his constituents rather than his own particular views.

If nominated and elected I pledge you that whatever energy or capacity I may possess will always be enlisted in making the burdens of the people lighter and not heavier by voting for large appropriation and no money in sight to pay them. I pledge you to vote for no bill or bills creating a lot of offices not provided for in the constitution; to vote for and not sidetrack a bill granting each and every voter the right to express his choice in a primary election for presidential candidates; to vote for a bill making the corporations of the state pay their just proportion of the state taxes. If you want a bill voted for that makes large and indiscriminate appropriations and that will enlarge the indebtedness of the state now amounting to over two and a half millions of dollars, do not send me for I will not vote for it. If you want more public offices created that are not needed and are simply created for the benefit of some political parasite and for which the constitution make no provision, do not send me for I will not vote for them. If you want a man to go to Frankfort and fritter away his time and be simply an ornament or servant of the special interest, do not send me for I'll not do it. If you want your state taxes lowered and the states finances put upon a sound basis send me and I'll try to do it. I will later on in the canvass tell you how I propose to help to do it. My creed is Beckham for Senator, a more equal distribution of taxation, less offices and a lower tax rate.

Respectfully,
J. R. Mount.

Telephone Reports In The State.

The Independent company and the Cumberland are consolidated in Franklin County.

A merger of all telephone companies in Woodford county is reported with increased rates and free service with Lexington cut out.

Independent Telephone Companies and the Cumberland Company consolidated in Nicholasville and Jessamine County, and the rates are raised.

The Fayette Home Telephone company and the Cumberland company are consolidated in Lexington. Rates are raised and the patrons are dissatisfied.

The two Independent companies in Christian county are taken over by the Cumberland company and the rates are raised immediately upon the merger of the companies. The patrons of the companies are protesting.

The Fiscal court of Christian county has revoked the grant heretofore given the Telephone companies to use the public highways for the use of poles and the Court will sell a franchise which will regulate the rates to be charged both in the local and long distance business. This is the first county in the state to sell a county franchise.

Suit has been filed in the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and several citizens by the County Attorney in the Fayette Circuit Court seeking the dissolution of the merged companies. The suit alleges that the Cumberland company or the trust has absorbed the Home company and not as reported that the Home Company has absorbed the trust.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Lexington and Fayette county was held at the Court House in Lexington Monday. Speeches were made protesting against the consolidation and resolutions were adopted asking the Governor, Attorney General, and the U. S. District Attorney and Attorney General of the U. S. to assist in the dissolution of the trust.

Please Give Us Credit.

We notice that several lengthy articles which originated with the Record have been going the round of the press of late under a Louisville date line, making it appear as a press dispatch to the daily papers, or else without being credited to any paper. We are not vain, but we believe in "rendering unto Caesar the thing that are Caesar's," and if our feeble efforts are worth copying, they are surely worth crediting, and newspaper ethics demand that this should be done.

Mr. W. S. Ferguson's Brother Dead.

Friends of Mr. W. S. Ferguson in Lancaster received word from him last Friday that he had been called to Melbourne Fla. by the death of his brother Mr. John Ferguson who occurred in that city. Mr. Ferguson was accompanied to Florida by his mother, who resides in Covington. The deceased was the youngest of the Ferguson family; he conducted the Carleton Hotel, the leading hostelry in Melbourne. He is survived by a wife and two children, his mother and two brothers, Messrs W. S. and Charles Ferguson of Covington.

LOGAN ISON.

The recent wise though drastic instructions given by Judge Charles A. Hardin to the grand juries in the various counties of this district are already becoming prolific of results. A report from Harrodsburg tells of the indictment of the jailer and poor house keeper, with the recommendation that they be removed from office, the indictment of pool room keepers for permitting minors to play in their places and the indictment of merchants for selling cigarettes to minors.

Judge Hardin's theory of going after the lesser evils and thereby obviating the greater ones, of removing the environments and throwing about the youth better influences, is indeed a good one, and we are glad to see that the citizens, the men who compose the juries are inclined to assist him in the carrying out of his theory, and we sincerely hope that his home county of Mercer has set an example that will be followed in other counties of the district, where doubtless at least some of the evils exist.

If the officers in the various counties who assist at the courts, and the citizens of the counties will hold up the Judge's hands in this most laudable determination to rid the district of these minor offenders, or cause them to desist in their offenses against the law, we will before the passing of many courts see the cleanest judicial district, the district where there is less crime than in any district in Kentucky. The question of whether we shall have an increase or decrease of crime in Kentucky after all lies with the people themselves, the question of the punishment of offenders comes before the juries. Will you mete out such punishment to them as will deter them from further infringement of the laws, or will you by leniency in the matter of fines and imprisonment or verdicts of "not guilty" offers encouragement for other offenses. It is with you.

When Lincoln with his far seeing eye spoke at Gettysburg and prayed that there might be preserved for us "a Government of the people, by the people and for the people", he meant a Government under the well regulated system established by the constitution of the United States at that time and before any of these new fangled amendments had been heard of. There are proposed amendments to the Constitution without number, and also efforts to undermine and get behind the Constitution, and to brush aside the safe-guards which it contains.

In celebrating Lincoln's birthday nothing could be more fitting than talks on good government. Children should be taught good government, first in the home, the school and the town, which will make of him later a good citizen in the state. If children are taught to obey and order and the power of authority and that authority should be placed in the hands of such people as we are inclined to obey; then truly shall we have a government "of the people by the people and for the people".

Poor old Mexico is in the throes of another uprising and considerable blood has been shed. The insurgents are being led by a nephew of Ex-President Diaz, he being released by them from prison where he was under a death sentence. The place was assaulted and President Madero was compelled to seek temporary shelter elsewhere, however Madero, claims to be able to cope with the situation, but it looks very much to an outsider as if the elder Diaz, the "Iron Man" would be recalled and would again rule Mexico. With the Balkan situation becoming more and more complicated every day, and threatening to involve many other European powers in the embroglio, an uprising in Niaraugas and the usual number of South American uprisings in progress, it looks very much as if the Biblical prediction of "wars and rumors of wars" was being fulfilled.

The medical press of this country as well as the medical fraternity, are loth to accept as true the statement of Dr. Frederick Franze Friedman of Germany that he has discovered a cure for tuberculosis, and are waiting to be hown. All manner of reports are being spread through the medium of the press, one of which is that an American has returned from Germany with sufficient of the virus for one patient, which he will administer to his wife who is a sufferer from the malady.

Meanwhile the American people are earnestly hoping that Dr. Friedman's alleged discovery may prove a success and that the time is not far distant when he will either send or bring it to this country in order that the many thousands of sufferers from the White Plague may benefit by his discovery.

Senators and Representatives who have been in conference with President-elect Wilson, and who claim to speak with authority, have imparted to their colleagues the information that he does not contemplate removing from office until their time expires, republicans, except for cause, such as dishonesty and like offenses, and that his resolution along that line will apply to the Postmaster and Collector of the Port at Louisville. The authenticity of this report is exceedingly doubtful, as the President-elect has thus far been exceedingly sparing with suggestions as to what he would do along other lines, and it is hardly probable that he would vouchsafe any information in this respect.

City government, in the long run, under whatever form it takes, will be just as good, and no better than, the people who take an interest in public affairs want to make it. It is a monstrous delusion that you can secure good government by creating a triumvirate, giving them absolute authority. A city government for the people and by the people is what we want. Public servants who do not regard public service as a private snap. We want men both capable and conscientious. It may seem a rare combination, but there are such men.

If you should visit Miami Fla., just now you would see Williams Jennings Bryan leading the simple life working in his vegetable garden like any other farmer. Some think he is raising potatoes for his friend Woodrow, in order that he may have enough cold ones to go around. The President-elect will need quite a few tubers if he keeps up his present policies.

It is said the motive of the modern Paul Revere ride is to arouse the dormant American woman to a realization of the importance of the crusade. It seems the men who live in the hamlets, villages and towns between New York and Washington are the ones that would be aroused.

If Mr. Edison does complete his invention to have moving pictures talk we are going to take a back seat behind a screen. We claim to be modest and "silence is golden" in most of the pictures we see.

In the National Congress a recommendation has been made to the committee on National Banks and Banking that in future National banks be allowed to loan money on real estate.

The tonsorial artists of Frankfort have increased the price of a shave to 15 cents. Frankfort always was noted for her shaves.

Mr. John K. West Ill.

The Record's good friend Mr. John K. West has been seriously ill, being stricken on Tuesday with an attack of an old malady, but we are glad to be able to state that he is considerably better.

Preaching At Baptist Church.

Rev. Sam P. Martin of Lebanon Tenn. preached at the Baptist church on Wednesday night, and the congregation of that church have under consideration the calling of Rev. Martin to their pulpit to succeed Bro. Bush who goes to Columbia.

Mr. E. S. Arnold Seriously Ill.

News comes from Danville of the serious illness of Mr. E. S. Arnold and his recovery is exceedingly doubtful. Mr. Arnold is a brother of Mrs. Eliza Hill and was born and reared in Garrard county, and is known to a wide circle of friends as "Sinc" Arnold.

Sutton-Lawson.

Mr. Stephen Sutton, son of Mr. J. B. Sutton a well known farmer and stock trader, was quietly married to Miss Marietta Lawson, daughter of Mr. Mose Lawson last week. Both parties live in the Drake Creek section of Garrard County and are very popular. The Record and the many friends of this young couple wish them much happiness.

Agents Wanted.

Agents wanted to take subscriptions for the Atlanta, Ga. Tri-Weekly Constitution. Valuable premiums for subscribers, liberal commissions and cash prizes for agents. You can make money fast in any small town or along any Rural Route. Some agents make a good living. Others make $15.00 or $20.00 a month on the side, soliciting subscriptions. Mr. Wiley Making Improvements.

Mr. Tobie Wiley who purchased the Bastin property on Lexington Avenue, has a force of workmen engaged in modernizing the house. New hardwood floors, improved heating plant, bath rooms and plumbing are included in the work being done, and when completed Mr. Wiley will have one of the most modern and up-to-date homes in the city.

Sammy Herron Enlists.

Samuel Lee Herron the eldest son of Chief of Police and Mrs. Luther E. Herron, last week celebrated the arrival of his majority by going to Columbus O. and enlisting in a company of U. S. Coast Artillery, taking a seven year "hitch". Sam is a good boy and by the time he serves his enlistment will doubtless be considered one of Uncle Sam's most valued recruits.

Prominent Garrard Farmer.

Mr. John M. Duncan, of Lancaster, was here Wednesday, having brought his crop of tobacco to the Danville market. Mr. Duncan is one of the most widely-known and highly respected citizens of Garrard county, having served as county clerk and been long identified with everything for the betterment and uplift of his community. We never knew a more pure-minded, Christian gentleman. While in Danville he spent much time with Messrs. W. C. Price, Ed. Hopper and Leslie McMurry talking over their good times in Garrard—well, we will not say how many years ago.—Danville Messenger.

Need An Opera House.

The production of the "Western Girl" at the opera house recently filled that structure to its utmost capacity, in fact Mr. Romans was compelled to turn many away for want of room. This demonstrates clearly the urgent need of some kind of a play house in Lancaster, and it is very much to be hoped that either Mr. Romans will enlarge his present house, or that either he or some one else will build a larger house here. A moving picture show is all right, but it has been clearly demonstrated that the people desire something better occasionally, and we should have a structure that would accommodate the better class of theatrical troupes occasionally.

The Ingratitude Of Man.

A group of politicians, including office holders, ex office holders and would-be office holders were recently gathered around a hot stove in one of the rooms at the court house, discussing the topics of the day and incidentally the ups and downs of political life, when one of the number, a knowing old wiseacre who many years ago held an appointive office of no mean pretensions and one which proved very lucrative to him, was berating the unkind fate which ousted him from his comfortable berth. One of the number asked the gentleman who was occupying the floor who ousted him from the office; with a ready glibness he enumerated the men who participated in his downfall, and began a severe tirade against them. After allowing him to finish his scathing denunciation, the same gentleman propounded the question "who put you into this office which you so reluctantly surrendered?" The speaker was non-plused, he had never considered that phase of the question, he scratched his head and stammered, but failed to give an intelligent answer to the question. The ludicrous side of the situation appealed strongly to the crowd assembled and they indulged in a hearty laugh at the expense of the old gentleman.

The above incident serves the purpose of showing very plainly the ingratitude of man; a man is once elected to office, and he thinks in nine cases out of ten that he should be allowed to stay there as long as he chooses; he loses sight of the fact that the people put him there, and resents their privilege of removing him. His long tenure in office divests him of the gratitude which he should, and doubtless at one time did, feel to the people who elected him, and his removal from the office which he had held often times not only serves to embitter him against those who sought to and did encompass his defeat, but against the world in general.

We notice that Wilson has visited a dentist, wonder if said dentist extracted any information regarding cabinet selections.

Resurrect The Commercial Club.

Town growth is a science and there are recognized ways to promote it. A committee of active men representing an organization should work at it, all the time. They should get definite facts as to how gains were made by towns that we know have grown, and see if these same methods won't work here.

While any town as favorably situated and with as many resources as ours should make some growth of its own impetus, still a much larger advantage can be secured by careful planning through which a business enterprise is pushed. Nothing moves unless some one pushes it and pushes in an intelligent way, giving the best information of successful methods used elsewhere.

Why not organize a commercial club at once?

Votes For Kentucky Women Active Campaign For Constitutional Amendment Now On Headquarters Open In Lexington And Field Organizer Engaged.

A campaign is on to obtain the full suffrage for women in Kentucky. A bill will be presented in the next legislature authorizing the submission of a constitutional amendment to the people at the election of November, 1915. Mrs. Desha Breckinridge, of Lexington, is the new president of the Kentucky Equal Rights Association. Mr. Urey Estes, formerly with the University Press of Chicago, has arrived to take up the work or organizing the sympathizers with women suffrage, and active work over the State will begin at once. This organization will include men's leagues for suffrage, as well as women's leagues. Since the matter is political, and must be determined by the legislature and the voters, it is important to organize the sympathizers in that sex which has not the handicap of disfranchisement. Any local league or any individuals wanting Mr. Estes services, or other help from headquarters, may apply to the address mentioned above.

Noted Anniversaries In February.

Fifty years ago the United States was engaged in a bloody struggle that stands as one of the leading events in the history of our country. This fact adds a special significance to the anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln this month.

The anniversary of the birth of George Washington, the poet Longfellow and St. Valentine day are three other occasions that will also generally be observed this month.

Now how many know that Joel T. Hart, whom Kentucky and especially Clark county delights to honor, was born four miles east of Winchester, Feb. 11th, 1810, which makes it 103 years ago, while Lincoln was born 104 years ago. Hart, by trade, was a stone mason and built many substantial chimneys in Clark and Bourbon counties. His first work of art was a bust of Gen. Cassius M. Clay. He went abroad in 1849 studying anatomy and other art essentials. While abroad he completed busts of Andrew Jackson and Alexander Campbell and also the statue of Henry Clay which now stands in Louisville.

His masterpiece was the "Woman Triumphant" which, after his death was sold to Tiffany, and later was sold by him to The Hart Memorial Association of Kentucky, this association placed it in the rotunda of the Court House at Lexington where it was destroyed by fire. By many art critics "Woman Triumphant" was said to be the greatest piece of sculpture wrought since Michael Angelo chiseled his immortal Moses. A noted art critic, of London, once wrote that it was the finest piece of work in existence. No wonder Kentucky grieved when it was destroyed!

So while we are feeling proud that Kentucky gave Abraham Lincoln birth, let us not forget to enroll the name of Joel T. Hart in the list of departed great.

Here's A Victim For Cupid.

Mr. J. J. Raymond the popular contractor who has given us such a beautiful school building, asks us to correct the report given out a few weeks ago, that he was married. He wishes us to state that he is still heart whole and fancy free, with a soft spot over his heart that can easily be pierced by a dart from Cupid's bow.

Fish And Game Club For Garrard County A Necessity.

It has been observed that the counties which organized Fish and Game clubs have reaped the most benefit under the recently enacted Fish and Game law. Garrard county which is traversed diametrically by the best fish stream in Kentucky, has no such club, and in consequence, unless something is done along that line before the coming of spring, this county will become a Mecca for seiners and others who have been accustomed to take fish illegally, and will feel much more secure in the pursuit of their nefarious practices because of the non-existence of such a body in the county.

Before the coming of the spring spawning, such a club should be organized for the protection of the fish. The sportsmen about town are perfectly willing to organize but such a move would be useless unless the cooperation could be secured of the farmers who own the land along the river. If a club could be organized, counting these farmers among its number, having annual dues which in the aggregate would be sufficient to secure the services for the part of the year of an efficient Game Warden, then and then only could the fish in our river be protected from the ravages of illicit fishermen. The dues would be nominal and would work a hardship upon no one, and the sum thus realized would be amply sufficient to employ some good man who would perform his duties efficiently, and the amount of the fines collected, a part of which he would receive, would work the double purpose of helping out with the expenses and deterring the marauders from a repetition of the offense. This matter should be taken up and a club organized without further delay. Who will take the initiative? All that is lacking is a leader, there will be no lack of a following.

The "Pinhooker"

Webster fails to give the above word or a definition therefor, but in the parlance of the tobacco market the term is applied to men who buy tobacco for the purpose of speculation. In the usual application of the word the pinhooker is a man well versed in the tone of the market, as well as an especially good judge of the quality of tobacco, but of late in this county some have been "pinhooking" who either lacked these necessary qualifications, or over shot the mark, least ways, a good many of them have quit, sadder but wiser men.

The pinhooker in order to make a profit of his superior knowledge of the weed he is able to judge at a glance the quality of a crop and to tell just how much that crop will bring on the open market, and gauge his bids accordingly. Most of these men prefer to buy when the commodity is low, but during the prevalence of the recent high prices, "fools rushed in where angels fear to tread", and they gained by experience what they failed to know by intuition. Another necessary fact which many of the embryo pinhookers overlooked was the fact that Uncle Sam requires every man or firm who handles tobacco to secure a license. This license costs you nothing and very little labor save the keeping of a register and making semi-annual reports of what you handle. An application for license may be had by writing to the Collector of Internal Revenue at Danville Ky., and your failure to secure license may involve you in no end of trouble, as well as subject you to a fine of fifty dollars. It is useless to take up the idea that one is not necessary for the buying and selling of one crop, for the government keeps close and accurate tab on every grower, checks up the sales at the warehouses, and if you handle even one crop without first having observed the formality of securing a license, you are sure to be caught in the toils.

Death Of Infant.

Frank Miller, the 11 month old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Dank Ball, who live near the iron bridge on the Danville pike, died of Bronchial pneumonia last Thursday and was buried at the Lancaster cemetery Friday morning. The illness began with whooping cough and later developed into pneumonia. The Record together with the many friends of the parents and family extend sincerest sympathy in this sad death.

Telephone Act Of 1912 To Have Test Before Railroad Commission In A Case Between The Cumberland Co. And Campbellsville Home Telephone Co.

The Act of the Kentucky legislature enacted in 1912 providing for the physical connection of lines of rival telephone companies doing business in the state, is to have a try out in the near future before the State Railroad Commission, which the Act clothes with jurisdiction in the matter. The case to be tried will be one of the Campbellsville Home Telephone Co. against the Cumberland Co., it being contended by the Campbellsville people that the latter company had objected to granting them connection with its line, claiming that it would be unpleasant for two competing companies to connect at the same place and attempt to use the Cumberland tolls jointly.

The outcome of this litigation will be watched with considerable interest locally, as upon the outcome of the decision will rest the future welfare of the Hubbe Telephone Co., which is now seeking entrance into Lancaster and other nearby towns, where they hope and expect to secure, under the above act, connection with the various other telephone companies already established and doing business in the towns, and the wish is being voiced on all sides that the Campbellville people may win out in their contention, and that the decision may set forever at rest the question of whether or not these smaller industries are to be crushed out by their more pretentious and wealthier competitors.

The Loose Leaf Warehouse.

The proposition to build a loose leaf tobacco warehouse in Lancaster has by no means been abandoned. Upon the contrary it is being pushed with great energy and with good success. Quite a tidy sum has already been raised and subscriptions are being solicited over the country. The assistance of the farmer and the tobacco grower is earnestly solicited in this matter. They will reap the greatest benefit from this establishment, not all the benefit it is true, but the greatest, because of the fact that it will provide them a home market and obviate the necessity of the long, tiresome and expensive hauls to neighboring towns, and for this reason they should subscribe liberally for the stock. The merchants and business men of the town will of course benefit from the establishment of this market here, and they can be relied upon to do their part, in fact they stand ready at any time to do even more than their part, but it is their desire that the farmer show his inclination toward the scheme by rendering financial assistance, before they go in too heavily, and for this reason, and in order to stimulate the town people to hearty cooperation, the farmers should come forward and subscribe for stock in the proposed enterprise. An investment just at this time in stock in a loose leaf tobacco market in Lancaster is a profitable investment, and the man who takes stock may reasonably expect a handsome profit to accrue from that investment, and every farmer who is able to do so, and fails, is standing in his own light, not only in allowing a good investment to slip by him, but in retarding the progress of his home county and failing to foster the establishment, which would be of more benefit to him than to any other class of our citizens.

It is desired to place every dollar possible of this stock in the hands of the farmer, thereby creating a county wide interest in the institution, therefore Mr. Farmer come in and add your name to the list of stockholders without further delay.

State of Kentucky, County of Garrard, ss:

I, S. C. Denny, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 6th. day of February, 1913. W. O. Rigney, Notary Public. My Commission expires February 7th. 1913.

Correct Attest: W. M. Elliot, Alex R. Denny, J. E. Stormes, Directors.

Examine our statement above to the comptroller of the currency. It will show you that we are doing a clean, strong, active banking business. At this time we desire to thank our friends and patrons who made this good statement possible, for their patronage, and solicit their continuance in the future.

If you are not already a customer, we will be pleased to have you become one. Polite, pleasant attention to everybody is our invariable rule. Respectfully,

S. C. DENNY, Cashier.

No Wedding Bells For Us.

Dan Cupid is said to get in his most deadly work this week but we will have to ask him to pass us by as there are no hearts hung on the outside of the Record office door for him to shoot at.

True, our three young ladies, Misses Stella and Grace Comely and Miss Mary Reid are just the kind he is looking for, good looking, bright and energetic, but the Record needs them so badly, if Cupid comes in the door after one of them he will go out by the window.

Surely, Cupid remembers Lenny for he got in his work on him some several years ago and hit him so hard he was led to the hymenial altar, like some of the rest of us, he now stands without hitching, is a thoroughly domesticated animal, the kind that Cupid never bothers but once. True, Terry is not married but he is invulnerable, unless hit in the heel, and he steps so lively we think Cupid would be wasting both time and darts to shoot at him.

The City Editor has had such a deep wound another shot would kill him. He really needs a professional nurse, no amateur need apply.

We had intended to offer our promising young devil on Cupids altar as a sacrifice from the Record office, but when he came in with a valentine he had written saying he "had given his heart to Grace" we knew it was all over with us and it was then we decided to hang out our card "No Wedding Bells For Us" in order that Cupid would waste no time on us, as there is so much work for him to do elsewhere.

First, we would direct him to the Garrard Bank and Trust Co., there is a modern man or two in there and they would like to negotiate with him before being shot at. He might stop in at Batson's and use another dart or two effectively. Currey's store holds one in the person of J. H. H. almost as invulnerable as Terry, but he still has a soft place over his heart. Smith the up-to-date clothing man, is also up-to-date in this business and if Cupid offers him any one, she will have to be neat as a pin, pretty as a pink the scheme of perfection. We will have to ask Cupid to pass over Hurt & Anderson, they are too deeply wounded to need further treatment, in fact they too, are at the stage where they stand without hitching and a lady can drive them as well as a man, even better.

H. T. Logan's has always been a sort of matrimonial bureau, where love letters are written and love affairs are argued before Judge Tinker Anderson and many a young man has known where his next meal was coming from through his kindly advice, for he always says to them, "don't do as I did, but as I say." He has started the ball rolling in this store several times, but it has stopped before it hit Simon, however Judge Tinker says he hopes to get him off this Spring, that he has ordered some flowers for Easter, which is always a hopeful sign.

We hardly know how to advise Cupid about going into Davidson and Doty's or into the Citizens Bank, Alex and Joe seem to be in about the same fix as the firm of Hurt & Anderson, though he had better talk with Judge Anderson before passing them by.

We advise him to open Billy Ball's door very gently and give Charlie Zane the same treatment he gave Billy, that is, slip up on him unawares, shoot him down and then put in one more dart for good count. He will have to have special arrows made for H. B. Northcott, as all of them heretofore have failed to penetrate at all, or else broken off before they reached his heart.

He needn't waste any time on Harry Tomlinson either, because he has been mortally wounded, not by darts, but sharp and flats. He is too far gone for even Cupid, music being the only thing that will soothe him.

We will ask him to keep out of the Graded Schools as Prof. Riley says love germs are very infectious, but not at all dangerous, at the tender age he deals with. Prof. Riley doesn't know how dangerous it is with Charlie and Willie.

As for Robt. Walter, Billy Burton, Doo Gill, Pool Perkins, Sam Denny, Joe Price, H. Clay Kauffman and Joseph Bros. we have given Cupid advice elsewhere, telling him if he wants to catch these, he will have to stop traveling around on the wing, but get a bicycle, motorcycle, Auto or some such thing.

The Time The Place And The Girl.

(The Records Valentine)

To the girl that neglected leap year, to the young man that neglected the summer girl, we would say, avail your of this self beautiful valentine month. The most beautiful time of courtship is the winter time of snows and storms. It fills the heart of the women with a light conception of love and domesticity. It makes the contrast complete between them and the cold outside. It fills the heart of the women with cozy hopes for the future and reconciles the wild creature, man, to a nuptial bondage that deprives him of many bachelor liberties. The summer girl may have been hard to withstand, but nevertheless she seemed a sort of illusion, but this queen woman of the heart is real. She is irresistible, not because she is beautiful or brilliant, but because she seems to belong, not to the cold world outside, but to him. And the maid who had no more heart than a diad during the summer flirtation is no longer a vacation ballad, but a woman enchanting and sweet to him through love.

No wonder there are so many weddings during the winter season they are the orthodox confessions of spring courtships and summer betrothals, that could no longer resist the fireside charm.

Willie's Valentine.

"Th teacher sez, I've got a hart,
But teacher's off her base
Once on a time I had a hart,
But now its owned by Grace".

The Modern Man's Valentine.

Let other songsters sing of girls with lips like rubies rare;
Let others prate of golden curls and damsel wondrous fair;
Let others make themselves all hoarse as they of beauty sing;
I fail to see where such a course will bring in anything.
I do not dream of laughing eyes the kind described in books;
I do not care to waste my time on any 'girlie's looks
Man needs more money her below, for pecks of it I pine,
Now, wont some damsel with the dough, be my Valentine?

A Hint To Saint Valentine.

Dear old saint our fathers worshiped,
Whom we disregard of late,
You forget that times are changing,
Bows and arrows out of date.
You are out of date, Dan Cupid,
Traveling around on the wing,
Why not get yourself a bicycle,
Motorcycle, or some such thing?
Why not get a touring car,
Run-a-bout or Auto-bus?
With these later day improvements,
You could make just twice the fuss.
Is it that our hearts are smaller,
That he misses off his fling?
No, in these days of fast traveling,
He has to catch us "on the wing".

Here's Good Picking For Cupid.

Green Clay Walker says the fact that he is not married is no fault of his and that he would like very much to have a wife, as she would be quite a help to him in conducting his campaign.

Valentines Day.

The celebration of Valentines Day on the 14th day of February originated with the Romans and is intended to be in commemoration of the feast of St. Valentine, who was a patron saint of the ancient Romans. The custom as anciently observed by the Romans consisted in sending pictorial missives which were termed "valentines".

There has however been considerable deterioration from the pretty original custom, and in modern times the day is observed, especially by the young, in the sending of caricatures and comic pictures intended to portray the recipient in a very unpleasant light, and in many cases the unfair advantage is taken to convey to some person your opinion of them by a means which very much resembles that most despicable of all persons, the anonymous letter writer. The custom as originally observed, and which is indulged in to some extent as yet, is a very pretty one; the senders chose beautiful cards containing appropriate verses of poetry intended to gladden the heart of some loved friend, but we are very sorry to say that the sending of the comic and more objectionable class of valentines very much predominates. The latter custom is very much indulged in by children, who do not stop to think, or else are not cognizant of the gravity of the act they are performing, but their elders we are sorry to say, are some what given to expressing their opinions of other people by means of the comic valentine.

Before we do this let us stop to think that perhaps the recipient may be grieved by its receipt, that we are doing them an injustice, and that we ourselves would not care to receive such a missive, and refrain from ruthlessly and unnecessarily injuring their feelings. There are any number of pretty card valentines to be obtained for the same price, substitute one of the latter for the nonsensical comic which you had intended sending.

You would not stoop to the underhand method of sending an anonymous letter to inform someone of their shortcomings, a comic valentine is just about the equivalent of an anonymous letter, therefore do not send it.

Cupid Has Inspired Lancaster Boys

"From The Fullness Of The Heart The Mouth Speaketh".

Doo Gill's first effort at Valentine writing.
The girl for me must have false hair.
And freckles on her face.
I do not want a "baby stare".
Of beauty not a trace.
I want a girl that's awful fat
As homely as can be.
If she's as ugly as a bat.
Then she might love only me.
The Valentine written below by H. Clay Kauffman shows a deeper insight into love affairs than does D. Gill's, it also shows literary skill and that he is equipped with large knowledge and the type of mind to write a valentine with a true lovers art. He shows himself to be both a student and follower of Burns.

Like A Red Red Rose.

My love is like a red, red rose,
That's newly sprung in June;
My love is like the melody
That's sweetly played in tune.
As fair thou art, my bonnie lass,
So deep in love am I,
And still will love thee, my dear,
Till all the seas gang dry.
Till all the seas gang dry, my dear,
And rocks melt with the sun;
And I will love thee still, dear
While the sands of life shall run.
Now fare thee weel, my only love,
Now fare thee weel a while,
And I will come again, my love,
Tho, it were ten thousand mile.
Your true lover is never bothered for a rhyme.

Billy Burton in writing his valentine was puzzled for a moment about a word to rhyme with nightingale, but he got out of it thus:
My love is a chrysanthemum
And I am like the nightingale.
I sing her verses all the night,
Unmindful of the biting gale.

We are by the boys in town, just as we are by the candidates, we will show no partiality and will print their poems as well as their wants and wishes, from time to time. We were so crowded for space, this issue we had to omit beautiful stanzas by T. K. Watson, also some "real heart throbs" by Messrs. Harry Anderson, Frazer Hurt, Joe Walker, Harry Tomlinson and Louis Tindler, but they will appear later.

Two Valentines For H. C. Bailey.

Saint Valentine was overly generous with the home of H. C. Bailey. He left two bouncing boys there that have been named William and James. We can not help but feel that a mistake was made and that one was intended for elsewhere, but as long as the mother, who was Miss Mary Moss, is so pleased and the proud father is just "tickled to death" with getting in so much 'steady help', we will not be so unkind as to tell Saint Valentine the mistake his delivery boy, the Stork, made.

Conceited Man.

(HE)

Dan Cupid went to shoot one day,
He flushed three hearts upon the way.
One was so hard, his arrow broke
At every stroke;
One was so soft, no barbs so bold
Could in it hold;
And one was fair, and sweet and sound
He quickly brought it to the ground.
Now, tell me truly, maiden mine,
Which heart was thine,
My Valentine?
Deceitful Maid,
(She)
Conceited man! None of the three
You tell of was the heart in me.
The soft, the hard, nor yet the sound.
You boast you brought to ground.
At other hearts yet
(Did you forget)
You leveled your artillery;
And shot and shot again,
And ever shot in vain.
You missed them clear, you see
Of these was mine
My gallant fine,
But not at all my Valentine.
(Married March 14 1913)

Farmers Can You Remember?

A better time to make money in producing hogs than now? The price remains firm around 7 1/2 to 8c. during the season of the heavy runs at the packing centers. Corn can be bought locally at 50c. All other feeds have a tendency downward, while look as though they will go higher. There is a great shortage in hogs especially good brood sows. J. O. Duncan will sell fifty head of select Duroc brood sows in Lebanon, Ky. February 27, 1913. At public auction, look up his announcement in this issue and arrange to produce a good crop of Spring pigs

News-paper advertising backed up by meritorious goods and prompt service will pay any firm, if you don't believe it try it.

Horse advertisements are starting. The Record is read by all the buyers and stockmen in this section of the State and you will help yourself and help us by giving us an advertisement.

Women these days have their hands full, she must not only keep her house, her husband and her cook but she must keep her temper and her youth as there are no more old ladies, and she is just as resourceful in the last accomplishment as she is in the first named.

Most every day brings us a letter with a "long green" in it to pay for a years visit with the folks who congregated weekly in the pages of our paper. We hope sometime, in the near future, to start a "Wandering Boy" column giving an account of all our former citizens.

In the language of Brer Rabbit; we don't care if you build stairways in our alleys, Brer Councilman, we don't care if our horse did eat his head off, we don't care if you don't empty our garbage cans, or clean our streets, fling us in debt if you want to, but please, just please, Brer Councilman, don't let nobody climb our water tower.

We have tried to be patient and bear up under the awful suspense the Governor has placed upon us, but we are beginning to display evidence of a physical breakdown, insomnia, nervousness, are upon us. Can nothing be done to make him say whether or not he will run the race set before him, and thus save our life.

We now know that it was a sham battle going on in Winchester, between The Democrat and The Sun. Col. Perry, knowing that the Noble peace prize of $40,000. had not been awarded, because nobody had done anything notable to promote peace, got up this revolution and now has $40,000. on his inside pocket just for telling these two newspapers to kiss and make up.

On the fourteenth of February comes the day sacred to St. Valentine with his hearts and darts and merry little cupid always trying to fit arrows into bows and shooting at any one he may choose.

This Saint is no regarder of person as you will see by reading this paper, he just shoots right and left and every shooting was an accidental one, "didn't know the gun was loaded", so forgive him.

Our Water Tower.

How tall was Alexander, pa,
That people called him great?
Was he as tall as our water tower.
And what about his weight?
Was he so tall that he could stand,
Like the water tower high?
And while his feet were on the ground,
His hands could touch the sky?

What about his capacity, pa,
How much could he hold?
Could he drink all the filter filters,
Did he know when he was—sold?

Quit Kickin The Park Dogs Around.

Oh, don't you remember our park, Ben Bolt
With houn' dogs whose hair was near-brown
They whined with delight when the fox
horn blew
But trembled with fear at the women's frown?
In terror the houn' dog has flown Ben Bolt
To a corner obscure and alone
Now they have made it a park beautiful to see
And with much pride it is shown.

Beautiful Women Of The 400 Who Have Luxuriant Hair

In gay New York, where women get ideas from their foreign sisters, the hair tonic called PARISIAN Sage at 50 cents is in great demand.

PARISIAN Sage is the discovery of a well known scientist, and he claims most emphatically that it is the only burning question why he "swiped" a stranger still how he could succeed in stealing two belles when some of our never be so successful as to steal one.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

At first the tendency of the manufacturers seemed to be toward large and expensive cars and the needs of the poor man or the man of moderate means was overlooked.
American ingenuity and common sense supplied this need in "The Ford."

The Ford is not only an inexpensive car to buy but because of its strength and enduring qualities it is also inexpensive to maintain.

"Pittsburgh Perfect" Fence

With the Latest Improvements, This Is the Highest Quality Wire Fencing Made, Bar None

Based on long-time experiments, decided improvements have been made in "Pittsburgh Perfect." AS MADE TO-DAY, it is so far superior to any other as to place it in a class by itself.

These improvements concern the quality of wire, construction and galvanizing
—three vital points that must be right to make the best fence.

We now produce "Pittsburgh Perfect" in our own furnaces and mills from the ore to the finished product. We know everything is right from start to finish.
These facts positively insure your investment in "Pittsburgh Perfect."

Made in Different Styles for FIELD, FARM, RANCH, LAWN, CHICKEN, POULTRY and RABBIT YARD and GARDEN

Every Rod Guaranteed

Ask your dealer for "Pittsburgh Perfect" and insist on his furnishing it. Do not allow him to persuade you that some other fence is just as good. If he doesn't sell it, write us direct.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood. The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and so salves have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema."

To Our Friends and Neighbors

You know us. You know we would not—that we could not afford to go back on our word. Nor can you afford to ignore this money-back-if-not-satisfied offer on this splendid laxative.

We honestly believe we have the best bowel remedy ever made. The most pleasant-to-take, most potent laxative for relief from the misery and dangers arising from constipation.

We wouldn't say this if we didn't believe it to be true. We wouldn't risk our reputation by making such statements did we not feel sure you would find them true.

Our faith is built both on the knowledge of what Renall Ordinaries are made of and on observation of the many cases in which they have proved their merit.

Orphan at Our Risk
If they do not abundantly prove their merit with you also—if you are not entirely satisfied with them—we will refund your money—and we will do that on your mere say-so. We don't ask you to risk a penny. Is that fair?

Just let the bowels fall in properly doing their work—just let the action be delayed and incomplete and the entire system and every other organ suffers. Wastes that.

CAUTION: Please bear in mind that Renall Ordinaries are not sold by all drug stores. You can buy Renall Ordinaries only at The Renall Store.

The Womans Club

(Edited By The Womans Club)

The domestic sense that women have, is no longer confined to her own household, but is shown to be necessary to Town, State and National housekeeping. Progressive men are learning that women have good judgment in many lines of municipal reform.

Surfrage carried in Washington largely because of the pure food campaigns waged by women. Public sentiment created by a pure food campaign reaches persons in every walk of life—school children, the indifferent citizen, in fact every body wants to eat clean food, the whole community could come together on the platform of clean food because nobody wants to eat dirt. People with no other idea of that which is ranked next to godliness want clean food, but they must be educated up to know what is clean food. Very few stop to think that the flies they see swarming over meats and vegetables, may be flies that are carrying the deadly germs of typhoid fever and other diseases too numerous to mention. We should say we will not buy food that is left on the street to become contaminated by dust and flies, that we will not buy food that is not protected in the stores, that we will not buy food, that is not sold under the pure food law.

To make such laws and enforce them, a universal public sentiment must be aroused, and the power to arouse it lies in woman's hands. The subject of clean food may be a homely one, but it is a dominant ever-recurring one in the harmony of the home life.

Bill Nye has said, "It is the height of a fly's ambition to be mistaken for a raisin", if that is true many have reached the height of their earthly ambition in Lancaster.

Recently, in cooperation with the State Pure Food Department and the State Board of Health, the Federated Woman's Club, have undertaken a campaign for better protection of bakers bread.

They are sending out a sheet that was written by one of the leading practical housekeepers of Kentucky and what she says should come to the attention of every one who is depending upon the bakers for bread.

It is a well written and timely article and we will be glad of the opportunity to reproduce it in full at an early date. Why not let a common band of sympathy work together for clean food, then clean hands, which will bring about clean hearts.

The public might like to know what positions women hold in Kentucky through the Federation.

We have a woman at the head of the Kentucky Educational Association, a woman on the Forestry Commission, we have two women on the Tuberculosis Commission, a woman as the State Bacteriologist, a woman Supervisor of Rural Schools and women as factory inspectors.

No need to be surprised that Kentucky women are being recognized, the same blood that made our men capable men that 107 Governors of the United States have come from Kentucky, flows in the veins of the mothers and daughters of Kentucky, we are only coming into our inheritance. Of course, we owe much of our inspiration to the General Federation and are proud to be a small part of that large body.

The General Federation of woman's clubs stands for conservation not only of natural resources, but of human life as well.

It is for temperance, not only in drinking, but in eating and dress and social entertaining. It is for peace and arbitration as opposed to war. It is against child labor that is robbing the world of tomorrow, against the white slave traffic, that disgraces our age and nation. It is for every thing good and it is a million strong. Can any club afford to hold itself aloof from such a movement? Club work has become a thing of beauty because it has become a thing of service. The progress of the world and civic betterment are being materially aided by the work of the club women.

The next club meeting will be conducted by Mesdames Kinnaird and Kauffman and will be devoted to talks along the lines of Civic Improvement, and also talks on library work and needs.

The next musicale will be the life and compositions of Schubert, who is recognized as the greatest melodist of all times and countries. This musicale will be held Friday afternoon, February 21st, at the Parlors of Hotel Kengalan.

Holiday.

All our banks will be closed Saturday February 22nd to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of the father of our Country.

The Business Manager of The Record is developing into somewhat of a poet as our readers have doubtless noticed. As it is late to eulogize the "Beautiful Snow," we are expecting shortly an effusion on "Spring."

"Aunt" Frankie.

"Aunt" Frankie McDonald an aged and respected colored woman well known and liked by all, died Thursday and was buried Friday afternoon. She was faithful and loyal to her friends, and set a most worthy example to the people of her race by her character.

Lancaster Too.

The advocates of the temperance cause in Lancaster were not idle in the closing days just preceding the vote on the liquor bills pending in Congress. A Union service was held at the Christian church on last Sunday night, in which all the ministers of the city participated and a telegram was sent to Senators Bradley and Payner urging them to give their support to the measure which so vitally interests the good people of the Commonwealth.

On Monday afternoon the good women of the town, irrespective of denomination, gathered at the Christian church and held a prayer service for the success of the measure, and even while the Solons at Washington were earnestly debating the proposed measures, the prayers of the good women of Kentucky were being offered to Almighty God, that he might guide and direct the law makers and show them that it was to the best interests of those who were most vitally effected to vote for the passage of the measure.

These words spoken by Burke, are as true today as they were when spoken. The power of the press is immeasurable. In every community, a government, "a ring", or even a publication must, of necessity, control that powerful, subtle creature called Public Opinion. If the Record has not guided the public opinion of this community, it has obviously had some influence on the struggling thought. This influence, at least within recent times, has merely been used to throttle the free press. We are fighting shadows and things in the air; there's the rub: we are dealing with Public Opinion.

The Record can not be expected, nor will it be tolerated, to paternally advise and control the fashions for instance, or the color of a woman's cheek. They usually do not need attention. But because this paper is read in this community, because it can have some power on the thought of this community, it must find a theme; a harp to pick. The paper is run primarily to bring shekels into the coffers of the owners, but not entirely for that purpose. You do us a base calumny if you think so. It is the ambition of the whole force to make this paper serve the welfare of this community, and to be something more than an accumulation of facts and a money making proposition.

Garrard County Boy Wins Honors.

The interesting debate mentioned in last weeks issue was held on Wednesday Feb. 5. The handsome Loving Cup was won by the Patterson Society. Garrard Co should be proud of the fact that one of her young men Mr. J. E. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Wilson of Painc Lick, was a member of the team which captured this much prized trophy. Mr. Wilson was also selected as the alternate for the team which will represent State University in the Intercollegiate debate to be held in the latter part of April of this year. This is an honor which every young man in the University aspires to attain ere his University career has reached its close.

Public Opinion And The Central Record.

There are three estates in Parliament: Clergy, Nobles and Commons—but in the Reporters Gallery yonder, sits a fourth estate more important than they all.

These words spoken by Burke, are as true today as they were when spoken. The power of the press is immeasurable. In every community, a government, "a ring", or even a publication must, of necessity, control that powerful, subtle creature called Public Opinion. If the Record has not guided the public opinion of this community, it has obviously had some influence on the struggling thought. Miss Dove Harris, a former Lancastrian, but now the Principal of the Danville Business School, has just been awarded a certificate to teach by the Universal Stenotype Co. and now has five of these machines in her office. In addition to her day school she has started a night school and is succeeding in all she undertakes, as all Garrard County women do.

Miss Annie Royston, a former teacher in the Lancaster Graded School, but who, for eight years, has held a high position in the Chicago schools, has at no time given up study. Each year since leaving Lancaster she has taken up some line of work in the Chicago University, passing her examinations with great credit. Miss Royston is as indefatigable a student as she is a teacher and we look some day, to see her at the head of one of our large colleges for women.

An Old Bone Of Contention.

A recent issue of the Advocate says: "rumor has been current in Danville this week that the shops of the Queen & Crescent Road now located in Somerset may be removed to Danville in the near future". This is not the first time this "rumor has been current in Danville", and has served as a bone of contention between the newspapers of Danville and Somerset upon several occasions. However, the Somerset papers seem to have always had the good end of the controversy, for Somerset has as yet retained the shops.

Elegant Offices.

A representative of the Record was shown through the dental parlors of Drs. Denny & Wheeler recently, and we are fully satisfied a more complete and well equipped tooth carpenter's shop is not to be found outside of the large cities. They have installed every appliance known to modern dentistry, and their laboratory, where they propose to do their own manufacturing is complete in every detail. Their latest acquisition is an "aseptic cabinet" in which to keep their dental tools and which is constructed wholly of white enamel and is a thing of beauty as well as thoroughly antiseptic.

Patterson.

Miss Margaret Patterson died at her home a few miles from Lancaster on the Buckeye pike on Tuesday night following a short illness of pneumonia, and after funeral services at the grave by Rev. F. M. Tindler, her remains were interred in the Lancaster cemetery at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Patterson was 65 years of age at the time of her death. She was a daughter of the late Judge James M. Patterson and has a number of relatives through the county, being connected by relationship with several of the leading families of the county. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. George F. Brown of this county and Mrs. Andrew Mershon of Tioga Tex. and by two brothers, James Patterson of Idaho and William Patterson of California.

"Miss Mag" Patterson, as she was lovingly known to a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, was one of Garrard county's truly noble women, a christian in all that the word implies, her life has been an exemplification of the true christian spirit, the greater part of it being spent in the tender care of her aged parents, one of whom, her mother, was an invalid, and after her death, which occurred a few years ago, she maintained the old homestead, taking one of her nephews to live with her. She had been a member of the Christian church since her early girlhood, and never missed an opportunity to attend services. The Record mingles its regrets with those of innumerable friends at the death of this good woman.

Mrs. Burton Ill.

Mrs. William A. Burton the aged mother of Mr. William B. Burton of Lancaster is reported seriously ill of heart trouble at her home near Buckeye. The many friends of this estimable lady hope for her speedy recovery.

To Correspondents.

In chancing events in your communications, even if it be but a personal mention, kindly give the time. If Miss Smith visited Miss Jones, say when, whether last week, last year as the article loses all interest to the reader if the time is not given.

Garrard Men In Revenue Service.

Collector Wiseman has appointed two Garrard county men to the Internal Revenue service; Joe Burnside Jr. is serving temporarily in the office in Danville, preliminary to be assigned to field duty, and John H. McQuerry of the Flatwood vicinity is on duty at Camp Nelson.

Elam Trial.

The examining trial of David Elam charged with seduction, and which was transferred to this place from Bourbon county, occupied two days in the county court before Judge Ford last week, and because of the absence of three material witnesses was continued until today (Thursday) and is in progress as the Record goes to press.

Big Demand For Tobacco Seed.

Many of the raisers of high class burley tobacco in Garrard county are accustomed to save seed from their crops, and in future much more will be saved than heretofore, as there is a great demand for it. Local growers are being besieged for seed and they cannot supply the demand, which shows the fame of Garrard county tobacco.

Sad News For Confederate Pensioners.

It has been found that there is not a dollar in the State Treasurer available for the payment of pensions to Confederate veterans Feb. 5th. was set apart as the day upon which the disbursement was to be made, but at a conference between Pension Agent Stone, Treasurer Rhea and Governor McCreary, the above decision was reached. It is impossible to say at present when funds will be available for the payment of the pensions.

Population Increasing.

Point Leavelle a Garrard county hamlet five miles east of Lancaster may not be growing commercially, but the population is certainly increasing. Within the past week the following births have occurred in that vicinity, to the wife of Mr. H. H. Coldiron a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Wells a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Doty a daughter, while the wife of Mr. Canaan Flannery presented him with twins, a boy and a girl.

The following announcement just received, will be of interest to her many friends here.

Blows Head Off With Dynamite. Horrible

Death By Own Hand. Resident Of Southeastern Part Of County.

Edmund Parker who resided on the road leading from Dripping Springs to Cartersville in the extreme southeastern part of the county met death by his own hand in a horrible manner on Tuesday morning. Parker arose from the breakfast table and went to the barn; the family were alarmed in a few minutes by a shot and upon going to the barn found Parker's body with the head completely torn from the body and scattered in atoms about the barn, and his left shoulder nearly blown off; an immense hole in the gown marked the scene of the tragedy, and from the surroundings it is supposed that Parker placed his head upon the ground and lighted a stick of dynamite and placed under his head. Mrs. Parker's cap and fuse were found in his pocket.

Coroner Jones went to the scene of the tragedy Tuesday afternoon and rendered a verdict of death by his own hand from dynamite. Parker had been away from home working on a railroad, and had only returned a few days previous to his death. He attempted suicide three years ago when he resided in Indiana by cutting his throat. He is survived by a wife and five children.

No reason can be assigned for the rash deed, as Parker had been in good health and apparently good spirits. He was 47 years of age.

Eleventh Grade—Marie Ballard.

Twelfth Grade—Mattie Adams, Frank Tindler, Lillie May Sutton.

Ella May Rigby leads the Freshman class for the first term; Stella Sanders, the Sophomore; Marie Ballard, the Junior; Kate Holtzclaw, the Senior.

The examinations for the first term are over and I may say that, for the most part, the work was very good. There were a few failures, however, brought on by lack of work. When reports are short it is time for an investigation. I am glad to say that one of last year's Seniors leads his section at State University.

Tulane University of New Orleans, La., offers a $100 scholarship to the first honor graduate of this year's class. I hope that some one will take advantage of this offer from one of the best universities in the South.

All primer pupils must start now if at all this year, for every new primer pupil starting late means a new class. We will take none after entering the new building, this session.

J. L. Riley.

Thankful.

We desire to thank Mr. and Mrs. Banks Hudson, Mrs. Alex Walker and mother, Mr. H. T. Logan, Miss Jennie and Mrs. Mary Lackey, Mrs. Tom Wherritt and many others for their kindness to our mother, Frankie McDonald during her long illness.

STANFORD.

Mrs. L. B. Hilton is visiting her aunt Mrs. E. G. Ashcraft in Louisville.

Miss Susan Fisher Woods is in Millersburg, the guest of her sister Mrs. Sanford Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Owens have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Cash of Falls City, Cal.

Mr. Hill Carter, who has been visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Carter has returned to Hugaton, Okla.

Mrs. E. C. Gorman went to Horse Cave Sunday to be at the bedside of her father, Mr. J. F. Hill who is very ill.

Mr. H. Rowan Sauley left Monday for Frankfort to resume his duties as Secretary of the State Board of Equalization.

Miss Elise Newsom, of Fayetteville, Tenn. arrives Tuesday night to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Farris and Mrs. Jennie Wearlen.

Mrs. Mary Burch has returned from Lexington, where she has been with her son W. S. Burch. The latter is doing nicely and his friends have every reason to hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. J. S. Baughman has bought of Mr. G. G. Beazley his livery stable. Mr. Baughman will continue the business at the same place. He expects to make many improvements in the present good outfit. Among other things he will improve the automobile service which promises to be a big thing here. We wish Mr. Baughman success in his new enterprise.

The ladies of the Christian church will give a "Silver Tea", at the residence of Mrs. John Baughman, on the afternoon and evening of February the 14th. Everybody invited to—"Be sure and bring a dime or two. Perhaps you'll make it tree, And, whether it be rain or shine, We'll gladly welcome thee".

The entertainment that they gave last week at Mrs. Jas. Wood's residence was a success financially and also enjoyed by every one present.

The crowd Monday was the largest ever witnessed at February Court. There were six hundred head of cattle in the Nunnelly Yards and all sold at good prices which ranged from 4 to 7c a pound. Mule buyers were here from all the surrounding counties and the competition and class of the mules offered made prices good, from $125. to $225, a head. Hogs were in demand at from 6 to 8 cents a pound.

Messrs Joe R. Duncan, Elgan Montgomery and Irvin Dean attended a dance given by Mr. Joe Hagan over near Pink, Jessamine Co Wednesday night.

Services at this place conducted by Rev. J. W. Mahan Sunday morning and evening were well attended, we also have a flourishing Sunday school for winter.

Messrs M. L. and E. C. Montgomery and brother-in-law Mr. J. B. Dean bought at a private sale, the farm of Mrs. Lucy Montgomery deceased price $50 per acre, they will take possession at once.

The community was greatly shocked Wednesday when news came of the death of Mrs. Louanna Johnson Bruce wife of Mr. G. A. Bruce at their home near Burgin. Mrs. Bruce had been well as usual and while sweeping Tuesday evening she fell and crushed her hip and died Tuesday night. She was almost 77 years old. There was quite a co-incident relative to their birthdays she having Martha Washington and her husband having George Washington's birthday. She was born in Va., but had spent most of her married life in Garrard Co. two years ago moving to Mercer Co., Mrs. Bruce had been a consistent member of the church at this place 41 years. She leaves a husband, four daughters one son and a number of grand children. May they through their sorrow be able to realize the happy exchange she has made, she has reached the bright beyond, her sorrowing is over "she hath done what she could". Funeral services conducted by Rev. Mahan at the church Thursday at 2 p. m. Interment in Mt. Hebron cemetery. Much sympathy is extended the aged and grief stricken husband and relatives.

Why Can't We Win All Three.

The Kentucky Educational Association, which meets in Louisville during the first week in May, will recognize the School Trustee as one of the most important factors in the life of the school. Time will be given for a round-table discussion of his problems and every Trustee in Kentucky will be invited to come and participate in these discussions. In order to encourage the attendance of Trustees, Mr. John B. McFarren, of Louisville, has offered a prize of $50 in gold to the county having the largest attendance of Trustees. He has also offered a prize of $25 in gold for the best essay written by a Trustee on "The Duties of a Trustee," and a similar prize on the same subject by a County Superintendent or teacher; also a similar prize for the best essay by any one on the subject, "The Qualifications of a Sub-District Trustee and How to Get Him."
